If we have towed your vehicle due to an accident, a police tow, or improper parking, we will gladly help you recover your car as quickly and inexpensively as possible. As always, there is a little paperwork involved.

Take note of these four things you will need when recovering a vehicle:

1. Proof of ownership.

- o Current Registration
- o Title with your printed Name of the Front
- o Signed-over Title with a notarized Bill of Sale for each transfer
- o A current DMV printout showing you as the vehicle owner
- o A dealer's report of sale (DRS) which has not expired. New cars 30 days from date of purchase, used cars 10 days from date of purchase.
- o Rental vehicles require a rental contract in your name

2. Photo identification.

Acceptable Forms of Identification:

All State and Federal Government Issued Photo Identification Cards

- o Drivers license, Sheriff's cards, INS Issued Temporary Alien Cards, INS Alien Cards, Gaming Cards, Work Cards issued by APD
- o Exception, Declaration of arrest accompanied by a notice of driver license revocation.

3. A release form if your car has a hold.

4. Cash (unfortunately, we cannot accept credit cards or checks of any kind.)

If you are not the vehicle owner and want to obtain or visit the vehicle, you will need:

- * A signed, dated and notarized note or letter from the vehicle owner with a vehicle description including the VIN # (VIN# is required)
- * If the vehicle owner is in custody, a fully completed (in ink) signed Jail Vehicle Release Form is sufficient.
